In Loving Memory

Tullio Zingone

September 2, 1939 ~ February 25, 2025

Tullio Zingone, 85, of San Mateo, CA, passed away suddenly on February 25, 2025. Born on September 2, 1939, in Montalto Uffugo, Calabria, Italy, Tullio pursued his passion for the culinary arts, traveling through Europe to master his craft as a chef. He loved sharing stories of growing up in Italy and his journeys through Germany, Switzerland, the Bahamas, and eventually California, where he not only continued his career but also met his beloved wife, Vitina. They married in 1969 in Oakland and built a beautiful life together after settling in San Mateo raising their two children, Raffaele and Marisa.

Tullio was known not only for his deep love for his family but also for his vast vegetable garden, incredible cooking talents, and devotion to all things Italian. He found great joy in bocce ball, winemaking, and playing cards with friends. His warmth, generosity, and passion for cooking brought happiness to many, both in his professional career and in the homes of those fortunate enough to share a meal with him.

He is survived by his loving wife, Vitina, his children, Raffaele and Marisa, and his cherished grandchildren, Amelie, Giancarlo, and Allegra. He also leaves behind family in Florida, Canada, Argentina, and Italy, along with a host of dear friends who will forever hold his memory close to their hearts.

Tullio's legacy of love, laughter, food, wine and friendship will live on in all who knew him. May he be at peace in eternal rest in the arms of the angels.
