

In Loving Memory

Hipólito Sanchez Miranda

August 13, 1964 ~ July 29, 2024

Hipólito Sanchez Miranda, aged 59, passed away on July 29, 2024, at 9:15 AM at UCSF Hospital, leaving behind a legacy of love and dedication.

Born on August 13, 1964, in Cacahoatan, Chiapas, Mexico, he was the cherished son of Juan Sanchez Gonzalez and Francisca Miranda Lopez. He was the second-to-last of seven children, leaving behind siblings Luis Francisco Sanchez, Josefina Sanchez, and Anselmo Sanchez.

At 19, Hipólito married Carmen Hernandez, and together, they had three children: Juan Carlos (40), Anselmo (38), and Hipólita Nancy (36). He was a devoted grandfather to 11 grandchildren, who were the light of his life. His love for them was evident in every moment spent together, always playing and ensuring they felt cherished, a true reflection of his caring nature and the importance of family in his life.

Hipólito's journey was marked by hard work and sacrifice. He began working young to help his family and eventually immigrated to the United States in the mid-1980s, seeking better opportunities. Despite challenges, including a struggle with alcoholism, he was known for his unwavering work ethic and dedication.

In 2014, Hipólito became a Christian and accepted Jesus Christ as his only savior. Later that year, he was baptized, and around that time, he stopped drinking. He had been sober for approximately ten years. During sobriety, Hipólito built closer relationships with his two sons, daughters-in-law, and grandchildren, strengthening the bonds that meant so much to him. That was a true testament to the power of resilience and the importance of faith in his life.

Known for his hearty laugh, good sense of humor, and loving nature, Hipólito also had a passion for painting and was incredibly kind. His memory will forever live in the hearts of his family and all who had the privilege of knowing him. His life was a beautiful testament to love, resilience, and the importance of family. He will be dearly missed but never forgotten.
