

*There was an old goat named Dan
Who sat around on his can
Then he got an L.V.A.D.
Boy is he ever glad
He feels like a brand new man

In Loving Memory Of

Daniel Hall

April 7, 1938 - May 9, 2024

Order of Service

The most visible creators I know of are those artists whose material is life itself.

The ones who express the inexpressible without brush, clay, or guitar. They neither paint nor sculpt; their material is being who they are.

Whoever and whatever their presence touches is increased in life and love. They see and don't have to draw; they are the artists of being alive.

- J. Stone

Music: David Winter, Bagpipes
