POEM - "THE MEASURE OF OUR FATHER" (For Papa Tino, from your children and grandchildren)

It isn't wealth or earthly fame
That measures who you are,
But faith that shines through trials faced,
A steady guiding star.

Your hands were strong yet gentle,
Your words were kind and few,
You taught us how to walk with God—
And trust His ways were true.

You showed us love through quiet strength,
Through laughter, prayer, and song,
And though our hearts now ache with loss,
Your legacy lives on.

The measure of a man, we see,
Is how his love is sown;
We see God's grace within our lives—
Because you made it known.

"The righteous man walks in integrity; his children are blessed after him." — Proverbs 20:7
